

Expand Your Practice at Theodora Oringher

Allan L. Schare, Esq.

*“I joined TO after 24 years
at two international firms.
No bureaucracy, low overhead and control over my practice sealed the deal.”*

You’ve been at a national firm for a while. You’re at the top of your game, but you feel somewhat stifled by the rates you must charge, client conflicts, and lack of personal support or recognition. Consider Theodora Oringher.

Scores of former big firm lawyers who moved to our firm call us the best of both worlds. Big enough to have a stellar client list and track record in bet-the-company matters. Small enough to provide competitive rates and the collegial atmosphere and personal support you crave. Considering a change?
