

Expand Your Practice at Theodora Oringer

Parry G. Cameron, Esq.

“All firms are not created equal. TO’s big firm expertise, competitive and flexible rate structures and collegial atmosphere have fostered the growth of my practice.”

You’ve been at a national firm for a while. You’re at the top of your game, but you feel somewhat stifled by the rates you must charge, client conflicts, and lack of personal support or recognition. Consider Theodora Oringer.

Many former big firm lawyers who have moved to our firm call us the best of both worlds. Big enough to have a stellar client list and track record in bet-the-company matters. Small enough to provide competitive rates and the collegial atmosphere and personal support you crave. Considering a change?

We invite you to send your credentials to resumes@tocounsel.com or contact Harvey Oringer at 310.557.2009 for more information.
