

Make the Move to Theodora Oringher

Arthur R. Chenen, Esq.

“I moved to Theodora Oringher 18 years ago. My only regret is that I didn’t do it sooner.”

You’ve been at a national firm for a while. You’re at the top of your game, but you feel somewhat stifled by the rates you must charge, client conflicts, and lack of personal support or recognition. Consider Theodora Oringher.

Many former big firm lawyers who have moved to our firm call us the best of both worlds. Big enough to have a stellar client list and track record in bet-the-company matters. Small enough to provide competitive rates and the collegial atmosphere and personal support you crave. Considering a change?
