Robert Briseño is a transactional real estate attorney in the Orange County office of Theodora Oringher. His practice focuses on the acquisition, disposition, development and leasing of commercial, residential and resort properties. He has extensive experience representing developers, landlords and tenants in all aspects of real estate transactions, including the development, acquisition, disposition, and leasing of commercial properties.

Mr. Briseño advises clients on a wide range of real estate related transactional matters. He represents developers in the acquisition, disposition and development of various types of projects - including office buildings, hotels, industrial properties, retail centers, apartments, and undeveloped land - from negotiations through drafting of contracts, due diligence and closing.

In addition, Mr. Briseño has experience in bankruptcy, insolvency and reorganization with respect to real estate matters.
