Colin focuses his practice on complex litigation across a wide set of industries. With many years of experience, he has a long track record of success representing clients in both state and federal court, alternative dispute resolution processes (including mediation and arbitration), and administrative proceedings.

Colin is a Director on the Arizona Capital Representation Project Board of Directors and a member of the City of Phoenix's License Appeals Board. He is a former Director of the Maricopa County Bar Association Board of Directors.

Colin graduated with distinction from the University of Iowa College of Law. He served as a law clerk to the late Honorable Arthur L. Alarcón on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and by designation in the Sixth and Eleventh Circuits. He was also a litigator at major law firms in Chicago, New York, and California.
