

SAMANTHA E. VAN DER WALL,

Associate
Los Angeles Office

3105572009

3105510283

svanderwall@tocounsel.com

Samantha Van Der Wall is an associate attorney in the Century City office of Theodora Oringer. She is an experienced trial lawyer and litigator, focusing on products liability and toxic tort litigation with particular emphasis on defending suppliers in high-stakes mass tort and coordinated proceedings. Prior to joining Theodora Oringer, Samantha was an attorney at Kulik, Gotttesman, Siegel & Ware LLP, where she represented and defended common interest developments throughout Southern California.

Practice Areas

Business and Commercial Litigation
Toxic Tort and Environmental Litigation
Labor and Employment
Product Liability

Admissions

Bar Admissions

California

Court Admissions

Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals
US District Court – Central District of California

Education

Southwestern Law School

2019 J.D. SCALE Two-Year Accelerated Program
SCALE Two-Year Accelerated Program

California State University, Northridge

2015 B.A.

Representative Matters

- Senior trial counsel on trial team that obtained a complete defense verdict in favor of stone manufacturers and distributors in a high-exposure silicosis trial.
- Lead defense trial counsel in coordinating and developing defense strategy in major coordinated silicosis proceedings.
- First-chair trial counsel for high-end homeowners' association in 4-week jury trial involving three, separate lawsuits consolidated for trial. Obtained sweeping defense verdict in favor of the homeowners' association, its management company, and property manager in all three matters.

Accomplishments

Professional Recognition

-
- Southern California Super Lawyers (Rising Star 2025)